

Working with INDUSTRY

The UK home of
ENDOCRINOLOGY

The Society for Endocrinology is the UK home of endocrinology. We bring together the global endocrine community to share ideas and advance our discipline.

We have around 3,000 members working across science and medicine at the forefront of endocrinology and its intersecting disciplines.

We recognise that rapid advances in medical science are more likely to be brought into clinical practice when academia, charities and industry collaborate together in an open way. The Society for Endocrinology is committed to supporting our community through collaboration, providing platforms for knowledge dissemination and support the equitable delivery of excellent patient care.

Corporate Liaison COMMITTEE

Our Corporate Liaison Committee exists to foster and support partnerships and collaborations between the Society and industry for mutually beneficial projects which further patient care.

They play a crucial role in making our partnerships as productive as possible and leverage industry insights to maximise the value that the Society offers. For our partners they are able to use the Corporate Liaison Committee as a sounding board and utilise advise on partnership working.
